

Proclamation

Office of Monroe County Executive Adam J. Bello

WHEREAS, David J. Kauffman Post #41 is the local echelon of the of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America (JWV), and was established 90 years ago on June 12th, 1932 in Monroe County; and

WHEREAS, Post 41 is a critical local voice supporting Jewish veterans, advocating for the rights of their members, along with all U.S. military veterans, and currently serving U.S. military personnel. As a group, Post 41 stands up against discrimination and anti - Semitism and advocates continued support for Israel; and

WHEREAS, each year Post 41 honors the veteran community with annual memorial services remembering departed comrades and maintains the memorial wall at the Jewish Community Center comprised of deceased local Jewish Veterans dating back to the 1890; and

WHEREAS, through regular meetings with local, state, and federal elected officials Post 41 uses their platform to advocate for Veterans, urging law makers to ensure the continued support of those who have proudly served our country; and

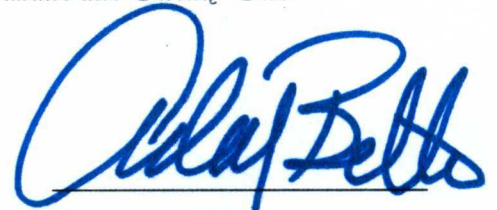

WHEREAS, through engagement with local schools and scout troops Post 41 encourages our next generation to be educated citizens, understand the efforts veterans have undertaken to ensure our freedom, promote patriotism, and inspire positive leadership; and

WHEREAS, Members of Post 41 continue to regularly donate their time, talent, and resources to local organizations for the benefit of our residents and their community, continuing their service to the public long after leaving the military.

Now therefore, I, Adam J. Bello, Monroe County Executive, do hereby proclaim June 12, 2022 to be:

JEWISH WAR VETERANS DAY

Signed on this Twelfth day of June in the year Two Thousand and Twenty-Two

Adam J. Bello
Monroe County Executive